

Job Opportunity: Development Manager

About Us

Tattarang is one of Australia's largest private investment groups with a portfolio that spans across agri-food, energy, resources, property and lifestyle. The group is made up of six business divisions: Fiveight, Harvest Road, SFM Marine, Squadron Energy, Wyloo Metals and Z1Z. We believe in investing for growth and pursue opportunities in both the listed and unlisted space with a long-term investment horizon.

Fiveight own, invest in, develop and manage residential, commercial and industrial property across Australia. Every project and asset in the Fiveight property investment portfolio maintains a strong emphasis on quality, sustainability and design.

About the Role

The primary purpose of the Development Manager is to lead the day-to-day management, communication, and coordination of active development projects within Fiveight, Tattarang and Minderoo Foundation.

Ultimately the Development Manager is responsible for the creation of commercially successful and sustainable development across multiple sectors, progressing the on-time, on-budget delivery of capex projects and assist in the strategic direction and financial feasibility development on commercial (for profit) projects and investments.

About You

You can work productively independently and as part of a team.

You will hold a bachelor's degree in property, engineering or project management or related field, or equivalent-related property and/or construction experience.

You will have strong progressively responsible project management experience, with sensitivity and commitment to business problem solving.

You will have a distinctive blend of property, construction, financial and communication skills, because this is a highly visible position with substantial impact.

You must have knowledge of project management methodology and experience or familiarity with major, defined program management approaches.

You will bring significant knowledge of project planning/scheduling tools (for example, Microsoft Project), with a solid track record of practical application.

You will possess exceptional verbal and written communication skills with expertise in setting and managing client expectations.

You will have well defined and effective influencing and negotiating skills.

Do you have the courage and determination, work ethic, humility, and passion to achieve your goals with a start-up mindset?

Are you ready to be accountable in an impact and results driven organisation?

Are you up for the challenge?
